FOREST VIEW

We are having cold winter weather, heavy frost and cold nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ewers and Miss Bernice Ford of Lynchburg, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Evans and children of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Nash and children, Mrs. Hunter Woodridge and son, Earl, and wife all of Lynchburg, spent last Sunday with their father, T. J. Nash.

The people of this community are going to Appomattox Tuesday to meet with the Supervisors to see about making a change in the road near Spring Mill, what is known as Rattlesnake hill. We hope the change can be made as this is a dangerous and rough piece of road.

Miss Anna Woodridge is getting along nicely, after having right much trouble with her leg, caused by a bruise.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dickerson of Spout Spring, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin on Sunday afternoon recently.

HIXBURG

Deacon Dubbs, a comedy in three acts, will be given at Hixburg school next Saturday night, November 17th, at 8 o'clock, for benefit of school. Everybody come. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Mr. J. R. Marshall has been on sick list for the last few days. Mrs. Mattie Harwood spent week-end in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gilliam and little girls spent Sunday with Mrs. Fannie Marshall.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson and Mr. Richard Singleton of Darlington Heights, spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. J. R. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watkins of Farmville, visited in the home of Mrs. H. M. Marshall and Mrs. J. H. Marshall Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to report that Mr. Floyd Gilliam who has been in hospital in Lynchburg, is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Featherston spent week-end at the home of Mr. Thornton Marshall.

STONEWALL

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Green of Tommie Tanner visited Mrs. Green's home near Buffalo Station for the week-end.

Miss Frances Stratton and Miss Helen Scruggs, of Lynchburg, visited J. A. Stratton and family Sunday afternoon.

Miss Helen Scruggs, Vernon Harding and Medames, W. H. Harding, J. P. Alvis, Clayton Drinkard and Clayton Jr., visited Miss Lina Carson Tuesday afternoon. Miss Carson is improving slowly, very glad to say.

Mr. S. L. Scruggs has recently had a road installed.

Mrs. G. A. Jacobs and daughters of Richmond, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stratton, Sr., for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elder and children visited relatives in Gladys Saturday night and spent a short while in the Stratton home Sunday.

Judge Christian and daughter, Miss Agnes of Richmond, were guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Parks Jennings, and family for the week-end. Mr. Parks Jennings returned with Miss Christian Sunday for a two week's business trip.

Mrs. Annie Alvins of Farmville, spent a short while at home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. E. L. Chick and daughter, Rachel, were guests of relatives in Lynchburg last week-end.

Col. Joseph Button and wife of Richmond, who have been spending ten days at his country home at Walker's Ford, spent Tuesday at Stonewall.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor of
